STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The duty of bankers as to secrecy concerning their customers' affairs arises out of their contractual relationship and it has been universally accepted as a customary usage in banking and has also been recognised in law. The various enactments providing for the establishment of public sector financial institutions contain provisions in respect of this obligation as to fidelity and secrecy. It is considered appropriate to make similar statutory provisions with respect to companies functioning as public financial institutions.

2. This opportunity is proposed to be availed of to make the provisions as to the obligation of secrecy and fidelity contained in the Industrial Finance Corporation Act, 1948, and the State Financial Corporations Act, 1951, more comprehensive.

3. The Bill seeks to achieve the above objects.
